6) Can I work with multiple insurance companies or am I limited to one insurer?

You are never locked into one type of policy or one insurance company. Muller works to provide you with the best policy options regardless of who is offering them.

7) Where does Muller operate?

Muller is headquartered in Hoboken, New Jersey but is licensed to sell insurance in more than 24 states, including New Jersey, New York, Connecticut, Delaware, Washington DC, Maryland, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Maine, Vermont, Pennsylvania, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Georgia, Florida, Texas, Kansas, Utah, Arizona, New Mexico, Colorado, Oregon, Michigan and California.

And more expansion is likely coming, meaning Muller will be able to help with all your insurance needs no matter where you live.

8) How does that work?

Muller's experience and deep business relations with various insurance companies allows its staff to access the best policies at the best rates in any state it is licensed in, which provides even more options to bundle policies and save money.

9) Does Muller charge anything to review my existing policies or develop alternative quotes?

No. Quotes and policy reviews are free. Muller is always happy to review your current status and explore possible insurance alternatives cost-free even if you don't change a thing. In fact, you'll never be charged directly from Muller for any policies. Your premiums and fees are paid directly to your insurance companies.

10) How can I get started?

It is simple. You can call or email Muller at info@mullerinsurance.com or 201 659-2403 and let us know what you're looking for. If you prefer to work with us in person, set up an appointment or simply walk into our Hoboken offices. We are always there to help.
