Roger Muller Jr. Honored with Five Star Professional Designation
Second Straight Year Muller Is Cited

HOBOKEN, NJ (March 6, 2017)—Roger Muller Jr., co-owner of Muller Insurance, has once again received the distinction of being named a Five Star Professional in Home/Auto Insurance by the independent Five Star association.

This marks the second straight year that Muller has received the Five Star designation, signifying his work as a leader in his field. The designation also adds to the growing list of accolades the Muller Insurance Company has received in recent years, including being repeatedly designated a Cornerstone Elite Agency by the Chubb Insurance Companies.

“It is a great honor being named a Five Star Professional, especially for the second year in a row. It is a tribute not just to me but to our entire staff and all the hard work they do to help our clients get the very best policies at the best rates possible,” Muller explained. “It is our mission and our passion.”

The Five Star association conducts market research to define and promote professional excellence. Its designations also assist consumers in selecting a service professional, like insurance, that other consumers say provides exceptional client satisfaction and service. Founded in 2003, the national program will formally announce its new designees in the upcoming issue of New Jersey Monthly.

The Hoboken-based, family-owned business, has a long and distinguished history of providing personal and business insurance. Since its inception in 1906, Muller Insurance has built a significant and loyal customer base that now extends from the New Jersey-New York metropolitan area to the largest states in the U.S., including California, Texas, Florida, Michigan, Maryland and North Carolina, among many others.

“Our business and reach continues to grow because we remain true to our founding principles of service,” Muller added.
