HOBOKEN, N.J. — May 13, 2026 — Muller Insurance, the third-generation family-owned independent insurance agency headquartered in Hoboken, New Jersey, has been named to The Philadelphia Contributionship's Franklin Circle — a distinction reserved for the carrier's top 10 performing agencies company-wide.

Founded in 1752 by Benjamin Franklin, The Philadelphia Contributionship is the oldest property insurance company in the United States and works with hundreds of independent agencies. Selection for the Franklin Circle reflects sustained excellence in service, claims advocacy, professional standards, and the quality of the relationships an agency builds with the families and businesses it protects.

"To be ranked among the top 10 agencies in The Philadelphia Contributionship's entire network is an extraordinary honor," said Roger Muller, majority owner of Muller Insurance. "This recognition belongs to our entire team and to the clients who have trusted us with their families and businesses, in some cases for generations. Reaching this milestone in our 120th anniversary year makes it especially meaningful."

Muller Insurance has served the Hoboken community and clients throughout the region since 1906. Now in its third generation of family ownership, the agency is built on long-term client relationships, careful advocacy at the time of a claim, and a commitment to placing each client with the carrier best suited to their needs. Being recognized at the highest tier by a carrier with nearly 275 years of its own history underscores the standards Muller Insurance holds itself to every day.

As Muller Insurance marks its 120th anniversary in 2026, the agency continues to serve clients across 29 states with personal, commercial, and specialty insurance solutions through more than 25 carriers.
